

SEC. 48. On every auctioneer of all goods, wares or merchandise sold by himself or agent, whether by ascending or descending bids at public outcry, who accepts compensation for service, an annual license tax as follows: In cities or towns of twelve thousand inhabitants or over, fifteen dollars; in cities or towns of from eight thousand to twelve thousand inhabitants, ten dollars; in cities or towns of from four thousand to eight thousand inhabitants, five dollars; in towns or townships of less than four thousand inhabitants, two dollars and fifty cents.

Auctioneers

Tax according to population of city or town in which auctioneer lives.

SEC. 49. On every individual or firm, or his or their agents, engaged in the business of buying and selling bicycles or bicycle supplies and fixtures, whether such business be conducted in connection with other business or not, an annual license tax as follows: In cities or towns of twelve thousand inhabitants or over, ten dollars; in cities or towns of less than twelve thousand inhabitants, five dollars: Provided, that nothing in this section shall apply to any individual or firm conducting the exclusive business of repairing bicycles.

Firms and individuals buying and selling bicycles.

Proviso
Shall not apply to firms or persons conducting exclusive business of repairing bicycles.
Collecting rents, negotiating sales of real estate, etc.

SEC. 50. On every individual or firm, or his or their agents, acting as agent collecting rents or for both buyer and seller in negotiating the sale or exchange of real estate of any and every description, an annual license tax as follows: In cities or towns of twelve thousand inhabitants or over, fifteen dollars; in cities or towns of from eight thousand to twelve thousand inhabitants, ten dollars; in cities or towns of from four thousand to eight thousand inhabitants, five dollars; in cities or towns of less than four thousand inhabitants, two dollars and fifty cents.

Tax according to population of city or town in which agent resides

SEC. 51. On every individual or firm, or his or their agents, engaged in the business of buying and selling fresh meats from offices, stores, stalls or vehicles, an annual license tax as follows: In cities or towns of twelve thousand inhabitants or over, seven dollars and fifty cents; in cities or towns of from eight thousand to twelve thousand inhabitants, five dollars; in cities or towns of less than eight thousand inhabitants, three dollars: Provided, that nothing in this section shall apply to farmers vending their own products and without a regular place of business.

Buyers and sellers of fresh meats.

Tax according to population of town in which person resides.

SEC. 52. On every individual or firm or association of persons engaged in and conducting the business of selling coal and wood at wholesale or retail, an annual license tax as follows: In cities or towns of twelve thousand inhabitants and over, twenty dollars; in cities or towns of from eight thousand to twelve thousand inhabitants, fifteen dollars; in cities or towns of from four thousand to eight thousand inhabitants, ten dollars; in towns of less than four thousand inhabitants, five dollars: Provided, that this license tax shall not apply to vendors or sellers who cut wood

Individuals or firms selling wood or coal.

Basis of tax rates.